Day of Pentecost

Introduction for the Day: Fifty days after Easter, we celebrate the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost. Crossing all boundaries that would separate us, the Spirit brings the wideness of God's mercy to places we least expect it—to a crowd of strangers of different lands and tongues, to dry bones, to our weak hearts. Jesus promises his disciples that they will be accompanied by the Holy Spirit, and that this Spirit reveals the truth. We celebrate that we too have been visited with this same Spirit. Guided by the truth, we join together in worship, and then disperse to share the fullness of Christ's love with the world.

Confession and Forgiveness

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

The Spirit of the Lord fills the world and knows our every word and deed.

Let us open ourselves to the Lord and confess our sins in faith.

Silence is kept for reflection and self-examination.

Holy Spirit,

have not blazed with your Spirit. Forgive us, we pray, and fill us with your Spirit.

The mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting. I declare to you, in the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven. Live in the joy and peace of that assurance.

Amen. Come Holy Spirit!

Word

First Reading

Acts 2:1-21

Originally Pentecost was a Jewish thanksgiving-type festival celebrated seven weeks after Passover. On this particular Pentecost, however, the Holy Spirit is poured out upon the entire community of believers just as Jesus had promised and the scriptures had prophesied. Empowered by the Spirit, the entire community bears witness to God's activity in multiple languages.

Word of God, word of life.

Thanks be to God.

Second Reading

Romans 8:22-27

By pouring the Holy Spirit into our hearts, God gives us the promised first fruit of eternal life so that we await God's future in hope. In the meantime, the Spirit also intercedes for us by carrying the prayers of our weak human hearts to God.

Word of God, word of life.

Thanks be to God.

Please stand as you are able.
