Featured vendors: Third World Handcraft Shoppe, Go Green, Fair Trade for All, and Trails to Bridges will beguile you with their wares of jewelry, eco friendly products, accessories, healthy living items, children's gifts, home décor, coffee, chocolate, many more surprises! And Reformation youth will again be selling their delicious honey.

The Lunch and Farmer's Market will feature locally produced food to support sustainability*.

Proceeds benefit area farmers, producers of fair trade items, and Growing Power Hoop House project.

*Sustainability refers to meeting present needs without compromising ability of future generations to meet their needs.
