Al Land shares the 2022 St. Matthew's Adult Mission Trip to Houston

In this new year maybe you'd like to challenge yourself to grow in faith and service but aren't sure how to go about doing that. The Houston mission trip participants will encourage you to consider making an adult mission trip part of your plan for the upcoming year. Trip Coordinator, Al Land, shares "Every mission trip is a little different and there are always stories to be told about the people and the homes that the group works on. This will be a great opportunity to gain a better understanding of just how meaningful these mission trips can be."

Wednesday Bible study resumes on Wednesday, January 11th, 2023 at 10:00am.

Since then, many donations have been made by congregation members. With a recent anonymous memorial gift, we have been able to purchase a used 7-foot 1991 Steinway Grand Piano for the sanctuary for the first time this Christmas Eve. What should I consider when attending worship, to be considerate of others?

- 1) If you are a little bit sick--maybe with a cold, or you're not sure what it is--please stay home! This is the best way to care for those around you and be a responsible citizen in our community.
- 2) Please keep up with the latest vaccines, for yourself, and for the future of mitigating the effects of this virus. Vaccines are proving to be effective against the variants, and especially against severe illness requiring hospitalization.
- 3) Still not sure it's safe? Remember our Livestream of Sunday Services at this link: bit.ly/StMattsLive (at the time of the services)
