

St. Matthew's
 Weekly Bulletin Update

Welcome to Worship at St. Matthew's
August 26, 2018

In the name of our creating, redeeming and empowering God, a warm welcome to members and guests who gather today for worship and Christian fellowship. May we be blessed as we bless God and one another.

Introduction to the Day: In today's gospel many people take offense at Jesus' invitation to eat his flesh and drink his blood; even many of Jesus' disciples peel off. This is the backdrop in John's gospel for Peter's confession of faith. "To whom can we go?" ask Peter, in words we sometimes sing just before the gospel is read. "You have the words of eternal life." In order to take such a stand, as Peter and Joshua did, Paul tells us to arm ourselves with the word of God. We pray in the Spirit that we might be bold ambassadors of the gospel.

Communion: All baptized Christians who celebrate the real presence of Christ in the bread and wine are invited to the Lord's Table at the 8:30 service. Gluten-free wafers are available if you ask your communion server. Those who desire juice instead of regular wine, please tell this to the communion assistant. Due to the weight of the communion trays, you may be asked to take your glass of wine from the tray as it is presented to you.

Altar Flowers are given by Rob Sholl and Jill Wickham in honor of their children's birthdays; and by Chris Weber Spornick & Jim Spornick in honor of their 45th wedding anniversary.

Tonight at 6:45: Pastor Matt leads the last of four Sunday social conversations on racial disparity. You are welcome even if you haven't come before. Bring a dessert to share if you wish.

Thanks to those people who donated food for this week's Cross Lutheran Church lunch and thanks also to those who helped out to serve the meal. About 200 people were fed. Thanks for the delicious items people donated. Special thanks to the twenty people who stepped forward on Monday to fill in salads and desserts that were still needed.

Prayer Cards Thank you for using the blue prayer cards for concerns to be lifted before the congregation, pastors and prayer chain. Please make sure you have permission from those you are listing by name on the prayer cards.

Faith in the Medical Community:
Your input wanted!

“Who is my neighbor?” Jesus is asked this question before sharing the story of the Good Samaritan. As members of St. Matthew’s, one of our neighbors is the community (really the small city) of physicians, residents, students, professors, nurses, care assistants and other caregivers at Froedtert and the Medical College. As a part of exploring our congregation and evangelism, I am excited to explore how we might best serve a) our own members and friends working in the medical field as care providers and b) what spiritual and faith needs are most important to those who work in the medical-care industry. If you are a nurse, physician, therapist, care assistant, and work in the medical field, I’d love your input as to where you see your faith and spirituality connect with the work of healing and caring. Please contact me if you are interested in getting together and sharing input about what you find helpful and lacking in your own synthesis of faith and work. I’d love to hear your stories. - Pastor Matt

Women and Justice Seminar and Luncheon: The Benedict Center is hosting a Women and Justice seminar and luncheon on Wednesday, September 12, 2018 at the Italian Community Center. During the morning seminar, the speakers will discuss critical issues facing women in the criminal justice system, including adequate housing, safety, mental health and addiction, education, employment, and trafficking. Deon Haywood, Executive Director of Women with a Vision. For 25 years, Ms. Haywood has been an ardent defender of women in the New Orleans. Ms. Haywood will share her vision for defending and uplifting disenfranchised and struggling women in the post-Katrina era. The morning seminar is free. St. Matthew’s has sponsored a table for the Noon luncheon. The cost for the luncheon is $30. If you are interested in attending the seminar and/or luncheon, please talk to Pr. Matt.

Stephen Ministry - We all need a concerned, caring person at difficult times in our lives but during those times it seems that everyone has advice. Most often, it isn’t advice we need -- it’s just someone who will listen and help us sort things out. Our congregation has 15 trained lay people, Stephen Ministers, who offer a ministry of Christian caring here at St. Matthew’s. They are prepared to provide care simply by listening instead of telling you what to do. The conversations are completely confidential. Being heard can bring a great sense of relief and clarity to a situation or relationship.

To ask a few questions and learn more talk with a Stephen Leader, Pastor Ann or visit the Stephen Ministry Center and talk with a Stephen Minister from 9:45-10:15 any Sunday. Or, write your question and contact info on a blue prayer card or on the Stephen Ministry card located in the pew rack and place it in the offering plate.

Are you interested in plunging deeper into your faith? Eager to learn what you never did or have forgotten from junior high? Wanting to nurture your understanding of God and scripture? Are you new to Lutheranism and want to learn more?

Consider participating in a new learning opportunity: Faith and Theology Basics (Confirmation 2.0)

Over 12 Tuesday evenings in the Fall, join Pastor Matt and other guest presenters in exploring the meaning of God, faith, sacraments, worship, sin, after-life, hope, suffering, scripture, discipleship, and so much more. We will gather to wrestle to learn, and to ponder together the power of God's love and grace, and what Lutheran Theology has to share with us as we live our lives in the world among God's faithful people. If you are interested in beginning this fall, or have any questions, please let Pastor Matt know. We will need a minimum of 6 participants to begin.

Lutheran Disaster Response and the Wildfires:

Intense heat in the western United States has fueled a number of wildfires. The Carr fire in Shasta County of Northern California has been particularly dangerous. So far, the fire has claimed six lives, with seven people missing, more than 95,000 acres burned, more than 600 homes destroyed and 38,000 people evacuated. Lutheran Disaster Response is working with Lutheran Social Services of Northern California and the Sierra Pacific Synod to respond to this fire. As the fire is still raging, we continue to assess the everchanging situations to determine the best ways to respond. Your gifts will help us deliver a robust response to address needs in the devastated communities.

Gifts to Lutheran Disaster Response designated for "U.S. wildfires" will be used to help those affected by wildfires until the response is complete.

Diakonia Class - See updated locations
Our Synod offers you this opportunity

Is someone you know looking for a deeper life of faith? Want to be better equipped for Christian service? Curious about what God might have planned for you? It's time to encourage congregation members or lay staff (directors of Christian Ed, Youth, Discipleship, etc.) to consider diakonia this fall! Diakonia is a national, two year lay education program active in 11 synods around the country. There are more than 125 grads in 10 years in the GMS. Grads are not rostered or certified in any way; this is a spiritual formation and learning for life and faith course.

Classes will begin right after Labor Day and there are 2 locations to choose from:

- 1. Faith Lutheran Church in Cedarburg on Tuesday nights
- 2. Lord of Life Kenosha on Monday nights

Tuition scholarships are available; registrations should be submitted by mid to late August for planning purposes. Check the synod website for downloadable application and financial aid forms.

www.milwaukeeesynod.org

Also check out the national diakonia website, www.diakoniusa.org, for further information on the program.

Speak to one of our pastors if you are interested in attending one of these classes!

Youth, want to be part of our Youth Services Directory?

St. Matthew's produces a Youth Services Directory almost every year, and it's time to produce a new one! This is an opportunity for youth in grades 6 and up to advertise their services and willingness to work as a pet sitter, lawn mower, yard work helper and/or babysitter. Many families in our congregation make good use of this directory to find young people to help out with these jobs.

There is a form to fill out for the youth workers, and turn in to the church office. We will make this form available at church, of course, but will also email it out on request, and include it in the weekly bulletin email which is sent out at the end of each week. The deadline for inclusion is Friday, September 28th.

Coffee available for purchase in the church office this summer:

Are you a regular buyer of Mt. Meru Coffee from coffee farmers in Tanzania? Or have you yet to try it? Well, now it's readily available for purchase in the church office. It sells for $10/bag, and is available in drip and whole bean, regular and decaf. There are also some available in K-cups which we can order for you. Help support this important partnership with Tanzania coffee growers. Mmmm, justice never tasted so good!
